

LEHMAN CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL

Cavalier Crier

Learn, Live, Love, LEHMAN!

Reporter: Kiera Burns

Adviser: Lori Moody

Issue #18: February 15, 2018

Lehman “Lawyers” by Kiera Burns

Above, back row: Danny Lins, Brianna Werling, Ann Pannapara, Kiera Burns, Sarah Gibson, Abby Jones, Camille Brown, Madison Hurley, Alex Gleason.
Middle row: Mikey Rossman, Jon VanSkiver, Olivia Monnin, Grace Monnin, Lyndsey Jones, Mikkel Alvarez, John Cianciolo, Lauren McFarland, Grace Olding, Liz Gibson.
Front Row: Emma Westerheide, Lisa Adams, Carianne Rindler.

On Friday, January 26, Lehman Catholic High School sent two teams to the district Mock Trial Competition in Marion County. The teams were divided into blue and gold, each team consisting of two prosecuting attorneys, two defense attorneys, as well as two witnesses. The teams had been practicing a fictional case - a request for a new trial by convict, Adam Smith due to an incompetent attorney. Each team had to represent their side and prepare their witnesses in order to prove whether or not Adam Smith deserved a retrial.

Lehman’s blue team won both their cases and is able to move on to the regional competition on Friday, February 16 in Marysville. The team consists of Grace Monnin, Grace Olding, Camille Brown, Abby Jones, Ann Pannapara, Brianna Werling, Elizabeth Gibson, and Madison Hurley with assistance from Jacquie Schemmel, Lauren McFarland, Lisa Adams, and Jon VanSkiver. They have been practicing and perfecting their performance of the case and expect to do well at regionals.

The Mock Trial Team is led by Lehman’s faculty advisor, Miss Kari Kruer.

Above: Camille Brown and Abby Jones look over their notes for the trial.

Center, top: The Mock Trial District Winner Trophy for Lehman’s Blue Team.

Above, l to r: Grace Olding, Grace Monnin, and Liz Gibson working on last minute trial prep.

Center, bottom, l to r: Olivia Monnin and Brianna Werling with their awards for best witnesses. Abby Jones and Grace Olding and their awards for best attorneys.